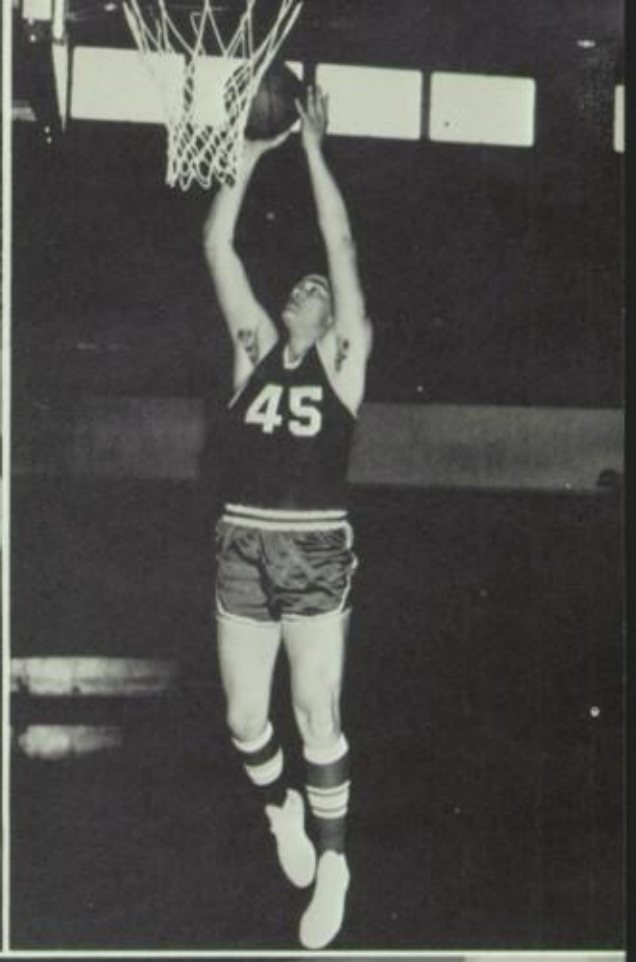
LAUGH AND THE WORLD LAUGHS WITH YOU

by Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Laugh, and the world laughs with you;!
Weep, and you weep alone;
For this brave old earth must borrow its mirth,
It has trouble enough of its own.
Sing, and the hills will answer;
Sigh! it is lost on the air;
The echoes rebound to a joyful sound,
But shrink from voicing care.

Rejoice, and men will seek you;
Grieve, and they turn and go;
They want full measure of all your pleasure,
But they do not want your woe.
Be glad, and your friends are many;
Be sad, and you lose them all--
There are none to decline your nectared wine,
But alone you must drink life's gall.

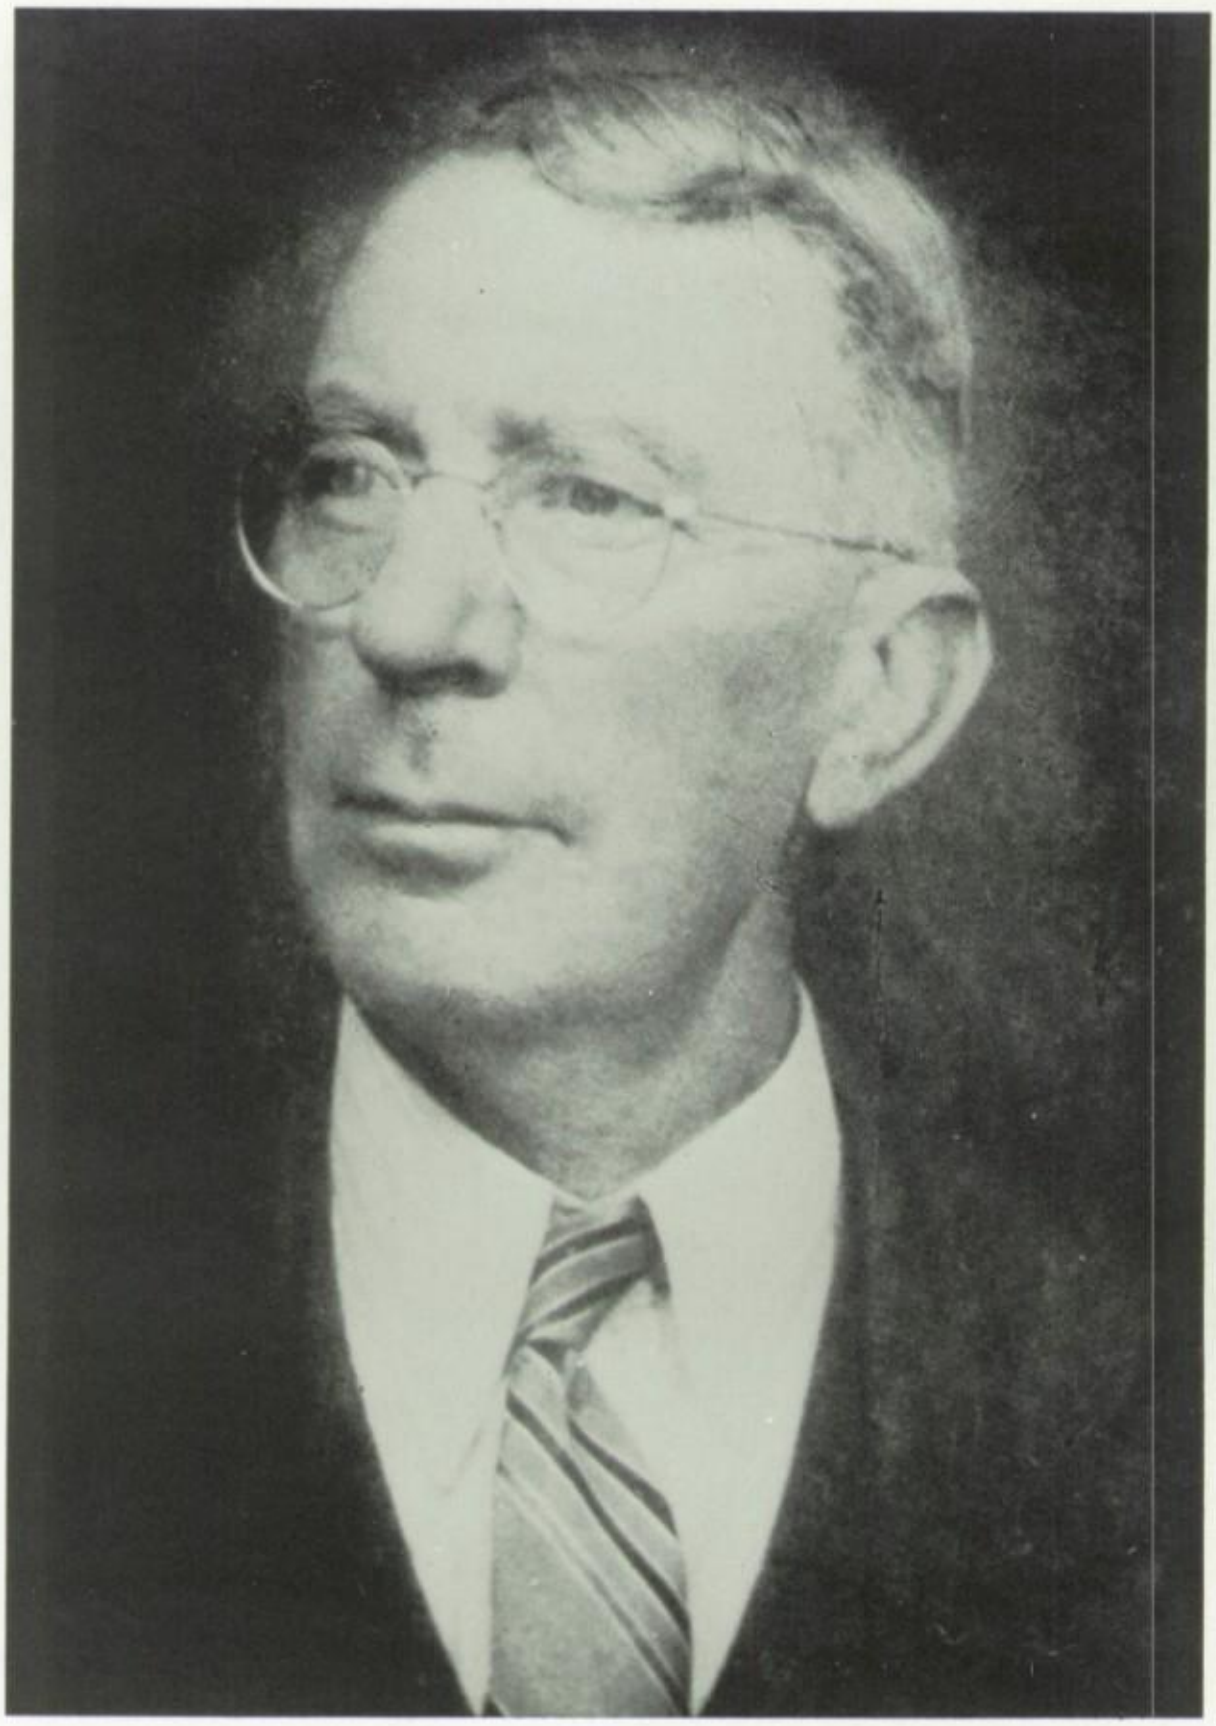
Feast, and your halls are crowded;
Fast, and the world goes by.
Succeed and give, and it helps you live,
But no man can help you die.
There is room in the halls of pleasure
For a long and lordly train;
But one by one we must all file on
Through the narrow aisles of pain.



FOREWORD

Located in a small, seemingly insignificant community, West Hopkins High School, a school into which 3 schools have united, devotes itself each year at this time toward turning back the pages of time. Thus, bringing to the people of our community as well as others over the country a true picture of West Hopkins as it shall always be known and loved.

Our teachers, friends, and environment at West Hopkins has made us what we are and in this, our 1966 edition of the REBEL we will attempt to show you what we are and what we hope to become in the future.



Many of us did not know of the man for whom there is a plaque in our school. This plaque reads: HUGH EGBERT, 1885-1959; May his help and efforts be remembered.

To those of us who knew Mr. Egbert, he was something special. To us who knew him as children, he will be remembered vividly. Although he had none himself he was fond of children and always had time for a cheerful hello.

To our parents he will be remembered as a friend and teacher. He spent most of his life teaching in small country schools and farming.

He strived for many years for the formation of West Hopkins and was perhaps the most important figure in its planning. We only wish he could have lived to see his dream come true.

For these reasons and others we dedicate this 1966 REBEL to the memory of Mr. Hugh Egbert, a man not to be forgotten.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. A. O. Richards is the principal of West Hopkins. His knowledge and understanding is appreciated by all.

Brenda Jackson, a former graduate of West Hopkins, is employed to carry out the duties of secretary of our school.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

GIRL'S TRACK

Mrs. Mary Barber, one of our newest teachers, has become one of the most popular teachers at West Hopkins. She sponsored both the girl's track and basketball team and the cheerleaders
